

IN-PERSON EVENTS AT THE ENGLERT

As the performing arts industry begins again, we are elated to safely bring people together for amazing concerts, festivals, and community events. While we don't have an exact reopening date scheduled, we are adding dates to the calendar for the fall and we are ready to inspire, activate, and have fun again! As we face the challenge of resuming full operations with fewer people on our staff, your sponsorship commitment today will help us open our doors and propel us toward a successful future!

A complete list of upcoming shows is available upon request by contacting katie@englert.org, or let us choose an event for you!
